Our library now has ebooks and 3 online databases available for you and your students!!!!
These resources are available through MackinVia.

 (<http://www.mackinvia.com>). There is a link or the SMS Media website. There is also a MackinVia app available so that you can access the materials on any device.

Open and view the items : the login is sebastian and the password is eagles.

To checkout items you will need to login with your specific username and password. (These have been set up for teachers- username is your e00# and password is your last name). Students need to see me to setup up an ebook account

The databases that I purchased are:

These databases are a great resource for research and are available for you and our students anytime at school and at home. :+)
