

21st Century School Library Programs in Florida's K-12 Schools

ExC³EL – Expectations for Collaboration, Collections, and Connections to Enhance Learning: A Program Evaluation Rubric

Advocacy	The library media program and its initiatives are promoted throughout the learning community.
Component	Parents/community
Indicators	Evidence Suggestions
School library parent involvement activities are collaboratively planned with teachers, administrators, and SIP initiatives (e.g., parent workshops and reading motivation activities and Internet resources for parents).	<input type="checkbox"/> Minutes of meetings with teachers and administrators concerning parent involvement activities <input type="checkbox"/> Documents from parent involvement activities showing library involvement (flyers, handouts, worksheets, brochures, forms, reports, etc.)
School library program activities include regular/ongoing collaboration with local public librarians to provide resources and services to students, teachers, and parents, beyond the school library program.	<input type="checkbox"/> Documentation showing communication between school librarian and public librarian: emails, flyers, workshop agenda, etc.
School library programming is reflective of current trends and research-based best practices as identified by local, state and/or national professional organizations.	<input type="checkbox"/> Documents showing correlation of library practices and current research/policies of local, state, and/or national professional organizations

Notes/Other Evidence:
