

21st Century School Library Programs in Florida's K-12 Schools

ExC³EL – Expectations for Collaboration, Collections, and Connections to Enhance Learning: A Program Evaluation Rubric

Program Administration	Technological processes and resources enhance learning and serve as an infrastructure for administering a properly staffed and well funded library media program.
Component	Technology (management)
Indicators		Evidence Suggestions
Automated circulation system is operational; version of software meets district standard. Data reports are generated regularly to collaboratively develop school library program goals.		<input type="checkbox"/> Printout from library circulation/management system showing software version <input type="checkbox"/> Printout of sample search using library circulation/management system
Online catalog (OPAC) is operational and available and easily accessible 24/7 on Intranet and Internet; version of software meets district standard.		<input type="checkbox"/> Printout from library circulation/management system showing software version <input type="checkbox"/> Printout of sample search using library circulation/management system <input type="checkbox"/> Printout of district/school website showing link to library circulation/management system
E-mail, digital, and web-based tools are used to collaboratively plan and communicate with colleagues and school community, respectively.		<input type="checkbox"/> Printouts of emails showing communication between librarian and staff concerning library program, materials, and resources <input type="checkbox"/> Printouts of emails showing collaborative planning between librarian and classroom teachers

Notes/Other Evidence: